NOTICE PURSUANT TO SECTION 152AW(6) OF THE TRADE PRACTICES ACT 1974 (CTH)

On 12 September 2008 applications were made to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) to review the decision of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission under section 152AT of the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth) (the Act) to grant exemption orders to Telstra Corporation Limited (Telstra) from its standard access obligations under section 152AR of the Act. Section 152AW(5) of the Act requires the Tribunal to make its decision on a review within six months after receiving an application for review (the statutory six month period).

The statutory six month period for each application ends on 13 March 2009. The Tribunal is unable to make its decision within that period. The reason is as follows. The Tribunal made its decision on the applications on 22 December 2008. Telstra applied to the Full Court of the Federal Court of Australia for judicial review of the decision. On 11 March 2009 the Full Court set aside the Tribunal's decision and remitted the matter for further consideration. The Tribunal is unable to hold a further hearing, reconsider the applications and make its decision before 13 March 2009.

Pursuant to section 152AW(6) of the Act, the Tribunal hereby extends the statutory six month period for each application by three months to end on 13 June 2009.

Dated this 13th day of March 2009
